- 3/16/98 (550) NOTICE OF APPEAL by defendant Virginia C. High from [547-1] order denying motion to vacate [548-1] and judgment FILING FEE $ 105.00 (pt) [Entry date 04/07/98]
- 3/23/98 -- Letter to defendant Virginia C. High without the notice of appeal and the $105.00 filing fee mentioned in the letter. The letter referenced civil case number 1:97cv2305-RLV. The following is a history as to how we received this without the accompanying document and filing fee. This letter was first received in the mail room by Lillie Certion and put in the civil mail. Since we do not keep envelopes from prisoners in civil matters, the envelope was not kept. Upon discovering it was a criminal appeal, Monique Wilkerson forwarded the letter to criminal section. It was kept by docket clerk Pat Trago in criminal awaiting the notice of appeal to accompany the letter. Upon investigating with financial if they had received the money it was then learned that neither the money nor the notice of appeal had been filed in the clerk's office. (pt) [Entry date 03/23/98]
